RESENTS ATTITUDE OF ALLIES

Course of Entente Powers Practically an Accusation of Treachery.

Athens, Dec. 6-Constantine I, king of the Greeks, received the correspondent of the Associated Press at Athens Saturday and gave him a message to America on the attitude which Greece has assumed in the world war and the reasons for the policy which has been followed by the Greek government. "I am especially glad to talk for America," said the king, "for America will understand Greece's position. We are both neutral and are together determined, if it is humanly possible, not to court destruction by permitting ourselves to be drawn into the frightful vortex of the present European conflict. Both are trying by every honorable means to guard our sovereign ty, protect our people and stand up for our national interests without sacrificing that neutrality which we recognize as our only salvation. "America is protected from immed iate danger by the distance which separates her from the battlefield. We too, thought that once. But the battlefield shifted and may shift again. What is happening in Greece today may happen in America, Holland or any other country tomorrow, if the precedent now sought to be established in the case of Greece is once fix-

"The fundamental cause of the entire threatening attitude of the entente powers toward Greece today and of the painful situation of my country," said the king, "is the entente's own assumption, without the slightest reason therefor, that Greece is ready to betray the entente to Germany at the first favorable opportunity. Is it reasonable to suppost such a thing? To halun you and "From the very outset of hostilities in the near East, Greece's neutrality has been stretched to the utmost to accommodate the entente powers, for whom we have always felt the keenest sympathy and the keenest gratitude. The Dardanelles operations were directed from Greek islands, occupied by allied troops. When Servia was endangered by the combined Austro-German and Bulgarian attack the allied troops landed unopposed on Greek soil, from which, with the second city of Greece as a base, they prosecuted, not only unmolested, but aided in every way consistent with any sort of neutrality, their fruitless and too long delayed campaign to res cue their ally.

"Finally, I myself have given my personal word that Greek troops will never be used to attack the Franco-British forces in Macedonia, merely to allay unjustified suspicions.

"Yet, despite all those evidences of the good faith of Greece, the entente

"Just suppose that the Germans were in a position to demand that your country concede the use of Boston or Seattle as the base of an attack on Canada. What would you say? And if all your military experience and the advice of your general staff told you that such a landing was doomed to failure because made with an inadequate force and you realized that the British troops in Canada would pursue the retreating Germans across New England, destroying as they went, you would accept the pros-king was asked. "Of course and entente assurances,

HIGHER PRICED GASOLINE

Next Year $180,000,000 May Be Added to Cost of Motoring.

Passengers and commercial car. sold in the United States in the year ended June last totaled more than 760,000. Close to 2,100,000 cars were licensed in this country for 1915. Automobile authorities figure each car consumes 500 gallons of gasoline a year. At that rate automobiles in use in this country are consuming over 1,000,000,000 gallons annually. It may amount to 1,500,000,000 gallons

In addition to use by automobiles it is figured gasoline is now consumed at the rate of perhaps 500,000,000 gallons a year for other purposes This would make total consumption this year in excess of 1,500,000,000 gallons. Next year it may possibly exceed 2,000,000,000. In 1910 consumption of gasoline by automobiles was but 225,000,000 gallons, so that the increase in five years has been over 300 per cent.

Even though prices rise no higher the cost of motoring in this country In 1926 is apt to be about $280,000,000 more for propulsion than this year, of which $100,000,000 will represent enhanced prices of gasoline, and $80,-000,000 the cost of consumption by

Wants Army and Navy Enlarged and Would Pay Cost by Increasing Internal Revenue.

Washington, Dec. 7.-President Wilson today read his message before the two houses of congress. The devoted to the question of prepared-

He urges the increase of the standing army to 141,843 men and by the addition of 52 companies of coast artillery, 15 companies of engineers, ten regiments of infantry, four regiments of field artillery, and four aero squadron. These he urges as the first step and said he will later advise increase of the militia.

The naval plan he outlines is an addition during the next five years of ten battleships, six battle cruisers, ten scout cruisers, 50 destroyers, fifteen fleet submarines, 85 coast sub marines, four gunboats, two ammunition ships and one hospital ship.

He says that more money will be needed to pay the bills and would raise this by increased taxes rather than by selling bonds. He suggests a way of getting more money to make the increase tax apply to smalfer incomes, a tax on gasolene, a tax of 50 cents per horse-power on automobiles. A stamp tax on bank checks and a tax on pig iron and on tabricated iron and steel.

He says: "There are citizens of the United States, I blush to admit, bern under other flags, but welcomed under our generous naturalization laws to the full freedom and opportunity of America, who have poured the poison of disloyalty into the very sioners appointed by the court are rteries of our national life; have sought to bring the authority and good name of our government into contempt, to destroy our industries wherever they have thought it effective to strike at them, and to debase our politics to the uses of foreign intrigue.

"Their number is not great, but it is great enough to have brought distheir residence in the parsonage on grace upon us and to have made it necessary that we should promptly make use of processes of law by which we may be purged of their corrupt distempers.

"A little while ago such a thing would have seemed incredible. Because it was incredible we made no preparation for it. But the ugly and ncredible thing has actually come about and we are without adequate federal laws to deal with it. I urge you to enact such laws at the earliest possible moment and feel that in doing so I am urging you to do nothing oss than save the honor and selfrespect of the nation. Such creatures of passion, disloyalty and anarchy must be crushed out. They are not many, but they are infinitely malignant, and the hand of our power should close over them at once. They have formed plots to destroy property, they have entered into conspiracles against the neutrality of the Govrenment, they have sought to pry into every confidential transaction of the Government in order to serve interests alien to our own. It is possible to deal with these things very effectu ally. I need not suggest the terms in which they may be dealt with.

"I wish that it could be said that only a few men, misled by mistaken sentiments of allegiance to the gov ernments under which they were born, had been guilty of disturbing the self-possession and misrepresenting the temper and principles of the country during these day of terrible war, when it would seem that every man who was truly American would nstinctively make it his duty and his pride to keep the scales of judgment even and prove himself a partisan of no nation but his own. But it cannot. There are some men among us, and many resident abroad who, though born and bred in the they are daily bringing upon us." United States and calling themselves Americans, have so forgotten themto put their passionate sympathy with Vaudeville-opera house today, Ad of these and expressing the even with military preparedness.

According to the position taken by the State Department it is wholly within the province of any Government to request the recall of a diplonon grata. It is also held by the United States Government that it is not required under any rules of international relations or practice to state the reason for asking the recall. While it is true that the reasons for requesting that diplomats be recalled are sometimes stated, it is the position of the United States Government, at this time, that the stating of reasons is not required and very often is not warranted.
